

What is Jim Reading?

Magazines

Columbia Journalism Review – must reading for a journalist. Well done but not much fun any more. Maybe journalism is less fun?

Mental floss – the fascinating and humorous magazine started by two Duke University students.

New Yorker – for the cartoons, of course, and the beautifully-written articles, especially the fiction.

New York Times Sunday paper – I can put it in the bathroom and read sections all week long. Not good for your posterior, but great for your mind.
